

The Daily Star
Fredericksburg, Va
13 Jan 1899 page 3 column 3
J. Samuel Suttle death

Deepest sympathy is felt for Supervisor R. V. Suttle and family in the great sorrow that has cast a dark shadow over their usually bright and happy home. Last Thursday, 6th instant, the death angel entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Suttle and bore away the spirit of their oldest son, Mr. Samuel Suttle, in the vigor of young manhood and cut short a life full of promise and usefulness. He had been sick for several weeks with typhoid fever, but to the last hopes were entertained that the disease would yield to medical skill and the best of nursing, but God ordained otherwise, and sweetly he fell asleep to awaken in that land where suffering and sickness never come. He was married two years ago to Miss Lena Redding, daughter of Mr. C. C. Redding, of Colonial Beach, who, with one child, survives him. His funeral took place from his father's residence, "Ridgely" on Saturday afternoon, and was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends, Rev. H. H. Fones officiating. May the God of all comfort sustain and comfort the sorrowing ones in this time of deep bereavement.