

Mortuary Notice

Date: Friday, September 10, 1852 Paper: Alexandria Gazette (Alexandria, Virginia) Page: 2

This entire product and/or portions thereof are copyrighted by NewsBank and/or the American Antiquarian Society, 2004. Source: GenealogyBank.com

Died.

On Monday evening, the 6th September, CLARENCE WHEAT, youngest son of James F., and Martha J. Catlin, aged 2 years, 1 month and 24 days.

On Monday, the 30th August, at her father's residence in Prince George's County, Md., FANNIE, eldest daughter of Dr. Jno. H. Bayne. Another sweet flower has been torn from the nursery of our esteemed friend—cut off in the bud, ere the sun of life had scarred a single leaf. We deeply sympathise with him in his sad bereavement—but no words of man are potent to heal the bruised heart. We point him to the words of Eternal Life—they are the only balm that can be offered on such an occasion. They teach

"This one dear hope the spirit to sustain,
That loved ones may meet again—may meet again. W.

At his residence, in King George Co., Va., on the 3rd inst., after a painful illness of fifteen days, Mr. WILLIAM J. DISHMAN, in the 47th year of his age, leaving a widow and six children to mourn their loss. In his last moments he gave the brightest evidence of the truth and value of religion. The deceased was a member of the M. E. Church, and had been a consistent member for more than 20 years past.

It is painful at all times, to see a friend die: but a death like his, to those who witnessed it, was a melancholy pleasure. "May I live the life of the righteous, and may my end be like his."