

Northern Neck News
Warsaw, Richmond Co., VA
12 Feb 1926 p.1 c.3

COLONIAL BEACH

Just as the sun peeped forth at noon after a cloudy morning Tuesday, Feb. 2, a beautiful wedding was solemnized in the Methodist Parsonage by the Rev H A Craig. The contracting parties were Miss Gladys Bradley Dishman, daughter of Mrs Lena Franklin, of Colonial Beach, and Mr Wm. C. Perkins, of Muncie, Ind. The winsome little bride wore an afternoon frock of green georgette and a most becoming little hat, the color of which blended artistically with his dress. Except for the members of Mr Craig's household Miss Lola Minor, of the Beach, was the only witness to the ceremony. Mr and Mrs Perkins returned a few days ago from Washington, where they spent the beginning of their honeymoon. We hope their happiness may be as lasting as the wedding ring which has no end.

CONFIDENTIAL
[Illegible text]

[Illegible text]