

The Daily Star
 Fredericksburg, VA
 18 Oct 1916 p. 2, c. 2

[394]

[397]

ALLENSWORTH-GRIGSBY

Pretty Church Wedding in King George.

Shiloh Baptist church was the scene of a pretty marriage on Wednesday evening, Oct. 11th, at seven o'clock, when Miss Lily Fones Grigsby became the bride of Mr. John Chauncy Allensworth. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. E. Warren, pastor of the church. The bride, who entered the church with her sister, Miss Edna Grigsby, was beautifully gowned in white taffeta with overtrimmings of chiffon and crystal. Her long veil was becomingly caught up with a wreath of tiny orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and asparagus ferns. The maid of honor, Miss Edna Grigsby, wore a shell pink taffeta and carried pink roses. The groom was attended by his brother-in-law, Mr. Horace Grigsby, as best man. The bridesmaids were Miss Louise Allensworth, sister of the groom, and Miss Susie Thompson, cousin of the bride. Both were dressed in white messaline, with pink trimmings and carried pink and cream roses. The groomsmen were Messrs. Hampton McGinniss and Robert Grigsby; ushers, Messrs. J. Cleveland Grigsby, Hunter Grigsby, Irvin McGinniss, and Samuel Dishman. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Mrs. J. Cleveland Grigsby.

After the ceremony the couple left in an automobile for Richmond and other Southern points.