

The Daily Star
 Fredericksburg, VA
 7 Sep 1914 p.2 c. 3

[488]

[396]

GRIGSBY-ROLLINS

Pretty Home Wedding in Baltimore.

On Wednesday evening a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Capt. and Mrs. James E. Slover, 2804 E. Baltimore St., Baltimore, when their daughter, Mrs. Ida M. Rollins, was married to Mr. J. Cleveland Grigsby, of Index, King George Co., Va. Rev. Winifred Roberts, a cousin of the bride, officiated.

The house was beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers. The couple were united under an arch of orange blossoms. The bride was beautifully gowned in crepe de chene and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Her sister, Miss J. Helen Slover, was bridesmaid and Mr. Geo. Grigsby, a cousin of the groom, acted as best man. Miss Lillian Grigsby, a sister of the groom; Miss Marga et Messick and Miss Mildred Bolton were maids of honor, each carrying a bouquet of pink carnations, their attendants were Messrs. Wm. Clark, of Dogue, Va.; Wm. Derding and Alonzo Ashburn. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Thomas W. Burke. After the ceremony a reception was given the bridal party.

Among those present were Capt. and Mrs. J. E. Slover, Mrs. John E. Erven, Ford, Md.; Mrs. Geo. Effort, Mrs. F. New, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Burke, Mrs. Ashburn, Mrs. J. F. Crawford, Mrs. Dressle, Mrs. Wm. Wilkins, Philadelphia; Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Crawford, Mrs. Roberts, Misses Kate Whitler, Florence Roberts, Addie Penes, Berdie Roberts, Mabel Kalbfus, Margaret Messick, Helen Slover, Lilly Messick, Lillian Grigsby, Mildred Bolton. Messrs. Walter Larmore, Harry Rappole, Wm. Derding, Geo. Grigsby, Wm. Clark, Edward Hall, Kemper Burke, Howard Walters, Archie Welster, Wm. Burgess, Wm. Creamer, Vernon Crawford. The bride and groom left for Philadelphia, Atlantic City and New York. Upon their return they will reside at Index, Va.