
Clarence Dishman Dies in Richmond

Clarence M. Dishman, 85, husband of Mrs. Nannie Jane Dishman, of Spotsylvania County, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. M. Catlett, in Richmond.

Besides his wife and Mrs. M. M. Catlett, Dishman is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Edith Catlett, of Richmond and Mrs. Gertrude Pugh, of Spotsylvania County; two sons, Claude Dishman, of Elmont, and Maywood Dishman, of Spotsylvania County; 27 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

The body will remain at the Wheeler and Thompson Funeral Home here until 2 p.m. Sunday, when the cortege will leave for Vaulters Church in Essex County. A service will be held there at 3 p.m., with burial in the church cemetery.
