DIED.

Suddenly, at his residence near Middleburg, Loudoun Co. Va., on the 7th inst., JAMES T. DILLMAN, in his 67th year.

Few men have given a stronger evidence of a warm and generous heart; he was kind and devoted to his brothers and sisters, and ever ready to divide his earnings with the poor and the needy. Long will his memory be cherished by a mourning kindred, as their gracious benefactor; and a community will feel that they have lost a kind neighbor, a warm friend; and —“an honest man,

The noblest work of God.” H.

At the residence of Wm. H. Hough, in the vicinity of Waterford, on Friday morning, the 24th of November, SARAH VIRGINIA only daughter of D. C. Hough, in the 6th year of her age.

Near Bolington, Loudoun County, on Tuesday morning the 28th of November, JOHN THOMAS, infant son of Wm. H. and Mahala Adams.
