DIED,

In this place, on Saturday last, JOHN P. COWMAN, in the 50th year of his age—leaving a devoted family, to mourn the loss of an affectionate husband and father.

On the 25th instant, at his residence, Pine Hill, in King George County, Va., Mr. JOHN DISHMAN, in the 51st year of his age.

Numerous as are the ills, flesh is heir to in this world, it seldom devolves upon us to have to record an instance of greater bodily suffering than was the portion of the subject of this obituary.—For fully five years previous to his death, it was his lot to labor under a painful disease, which in despite of medical skill, steadily increased, and ultimately rendered his existence less preferable than even dissolution itself. But the messenger—Death—that common enemy of humanity, and destroyer of all earthly hopes and prospects—for which he so earnestly prayed, eventually came to relieve him from all his temporal sufferings; and we earnestly trust, that ere this, his spirit has reached that better and brighter world, “where the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest.
