The exhibits of farm products in the agricultural building cover a wide field of endeavor. This department is filled with a beautiful and full assortment of products from orchard, garden, and field in a fine state of perfection. The Boys' and Girls' Clubs of neighboring counties have attractive displays, which are illustrations of the rapid advance.

Among those having single farm exhibits are: Spotsylvania County—Mrs. R. A. James, of "Chestnut Grove Farm"; Mrs. George H. Morrison, "Hazelwood Farm"; C. G. Altman, "Mercer Hall Dairy"; and L. N. Hoge, of Spotsylvania. King George County—Charles E. Cleek, "Edgewood Farm," Sealston; J. S. Dishman, Ninde's Store; Samuel Redding, Tetotum, and Wilfred Cleek, Sealston. S. B. Keckler, of King George, has an unusually fine exhibit of apples.
