

ALEXANDRIA.

The Washington Post (1877-1954); Nov 12, 1896; ProQuest Historical Newspapers
pg. 8

ALEXANDRIA.

A pretty wedding was celebrated last night at the M. E. Church South, when Miss Nellie May Vincent became the wife of Mr. Samuel Roland Dishman, of Pensacola, Fla. Miss Alice Thomas rendered the nuptial music in a manner that could not be surpassed. The ushers were R. E. Claughton and Clifford Wright, of Washington; W. H. Garret, of Baltimore, and William Schofield, Wythe White, and Ryland W. Joyce, of this city. To the bridal choral of Mendelsshon the nuptial party entered the church, the ushers leading the way to the altar, followed by the bride, who entered with her brother, Mr. M. P. Vincent, and who gave her hand in marriage. Her gown was of white silk lace, and she carried bridal roses, tied with white ribbon. Mr. W. DeC. Kessler, of Pensacola, Fla., attended the bridegroom as best man. The ceremony was impressively performed by the Rev. J. T. Williams in the presence of a large number of friends. After the marriage services a reception to the friends of the bridal couple was given at the residence of the bride on Prince street. The happy couple left on the 10:52 train for New York and Niagara Falls, after which they will go to Florida, where they will reside.