

NOTICE—Will be sold to the highest bidder on Tuesday the 29th, Nov. next. at the late dwelling of John Higginbotham decd. in Amherst County, the following property to wit: Between twenty five and thirty Negro slaves, consisting, of men, women boys and girls; all the stock of Horses, Cattle, Sheep and Hogs—All the house hold and Kitchen furniture, and plantation utensils, the Crop of Fodder Corn &c. belonging to said estate—Twelve months credit will be allowed the purchasers on giving bonds with approved security, to bear interest from the date if not punctually paid.

Also will be offered for sale, on the same day, three tracts of land, lying in the aforesaid County of Amherst viz: the tract whereon the said John Higginbotham, lately resided; containing two hundred acres, lying within two miles of New Glasgow, adjoining the lands of James Higginbotham, Joseph Dillard and others; the tract known by the name of the poplar grove containing upwards of two hundred acres, lying within two or three miles of the Court House of said County, on Rutledge's Creek adjoining the lands of Joseph Higginbotham and others.

And the other tract containing, supposed five or six hundred acres, lying on the east side of the Buffalo Ridge in the neighborhood of the Folly. The above Lands will be sold on a credit of one, two and three years; the purchasers will also be required to give bonds with approved securities to bear interest from the date if not punctually paid.

John Higginbotham,
Thos. Higginbotham
Acting Executors of

John Higginbotham, dec'd.

31st October, 1814.

ts 27.

"Lynchburg Press" Thur 11/10/1814

Notice of estate sale from the Lynchburg Press on Thursday 11/10/1814

NOTICE—Will be sold to the highest bidder on Tuesday the 29th, Nov. next at the late dwelling of John Higginbotham decd in Amherst County, the following property to wit:

Between twenty five and thirty Negro slaves, consisting of men, women, boys and girls; all the stock of Horses, Cattle, Sheep and Hogs—All the house hold and Kitchen furniture, and plantation utensils, the Crop of Fodder Corn etc. belonging to said estate—Twelve months credit will be allowed the purchasers on giving bonds with approved security, to bear interest from the date if not punctually paid.

Also will be offered for sale, on the same day, three tracts of land lying in the aforesaid County of Amherst viz: the tract whereon the said John Higginbotham, lately resided; containing two hundred acres, lying within two miles of New Glasgow, adjoining the lands of James Higginbotham, Joseph Dillard and others; the tract known by the name of the poplar grove containing upwards of two hundred acres, lying within two or three miles of the Court House of said County, on Rutledges Creek adjoining the lands of Joseph Higginbotham and others.

And the other tract containing, supposed five or six hundred acres, lying on the east side of the Buffaloe Ridge in the neighborhood of the Folly. The above Lands will be sold on a credit of one, two and three years; the purchasers will also be required to give bond with approved securities to bear interest from the date if not punctually paid.

John Higginbotham
Thos. Higginbotham
Acting Executors of John Higginbotham, Dec'd.
31st October, 1814